Exposed: More Palestinian 'Victims' Identified as Terror Org Members

BY GUESTPOST - APRIL 5, 2018

This article is translated and re-posted from work by Israeli blogger Abu Ali taken entirely from open Palestinian sources (as opposed to unattributed military intelligence) in the aftermath of confrontations at the Gaza border. The blogger's expertise and the information below have been corroborated to HonestReporting by Colonel Grisha Yakubovich (Res.), the former Head of the Civilian Department in the IDF's Coordination of Government Activities in the Territories (COGAT) unit and an Arabic

March 30, 2018 – Land Day was officially opened by the “March of Return” events in the Gaza Strip. The events were preceded by intense preparations on the Gazan side, which included calls by many organizations in the Gaza Strip, both military and civilian, for civilians to come en mass to claim “their right to return to their land that Israel stole from them.”

In preparation for March 30, tents were set up and infrastructure was prepared for receiving the civilians, in order to ensure that they would remain in areas close to the fence up until the target date of May 15 – Nakba Day.

The confrontations around the fence opened with intensity throughout the Friday of March 30, and ended with 17 dead and more than 1,000 wounded Palestinians with varying degrees of injury. According to the Palestinian Ministry of Health, these included about 800 wounded by gunshots from Israeli snipers.

Many claims have been voiced since then against Israel’s excessive use of force in an attempt to suppress the demonstrations on the fence. There were also allegations of Israeli snipers indiscriminately causing harm to civilians.

In the following document, I will present the data on the fatalities as they were recorded in the Palestinian media – by open and public means.

I would like to point out that in the days following March 30, two more fatalities were added to the list of fatalities, which are included in the document.

The following document contains the data on the fatalities as they were recorded in the Palestinian media – by open and public means.

- 7 operatives from Hamas' Izz al-Din al-Qassam Brigades
- 1 operative of the military wing of the Islamic Jihad, Saraya al-Quds
- 2 activists of Katayef al-Maqawama al-Wataniya al-Filastina – the military wing of the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine
- 1 operative of the al-Aqsa Martyrs' Brigades, the military wing of Fatah's Shahid Nakhl al-'Amudi faction
- 1 Hamas security forces operative (armed)
- 1 military activist of the Fatah movement
- 1 affiliate of Shada al-Aqsa – the Shahid unit of Nabil Mas'ud – an Iranian-oriented faction
- 1 Hamas-affiliated operative with an orientation to the Izz al-Din al-Qassam Brigades
- 1 Fatah activist – it has not been proven that he is a military activist
- 3 without any significant organizational affiliation

Total of 15 persons with actual military identification. Another 4 whose connection to military activity has not been proven.

Note: Failure to find any connection publicly in the Palestinian media does not mean that they are not military activists.

Another important factor to consider when examining the identity of the dead and their affiliation is the fact that out of the 19 killed, it is possible to clearly identify 15 military activists, i.e. around 80% of those killed at a minimum.

The entire Gaza Strip has fewer than 70,000 military operatives, including from all the various organizations. Gaza has a population of 2 million today. That is, the percentage of military activists out of the total population is lower than 3.5%.

given the fact that they were dressed in civilian clothes and could not be identified in advance as military activists.

They need to have a protest a day. $15 \times 365 = 5475$, which would be a great year.

There were no 'innocent' 'palestinians'. Each one deserved a piece of lead between their ears.

This is hate speech and not helpful. It reflects 100% exactly how they feel about us. Having two sides which feel this is the best final solution to conflict is what makes humans the dangerous primitive beings they are!

Aron Gersh you can continue to live under the rock and pretend that if profess your love to terrorists , they will magically turn into peace lovers. Nothing is further from the truth. Truth is that they, the "innocent" will gladly cut your head off for just being an infidel, as they have demonstrated so many times in the past. Truth is truth no matter how you hate it.

Where else is this article being posted or pushed out? I love reading things like this on HR, but am more that frustrated that the scope of HR (alone) is woefully inadequate to counter-balance any PR damage once done. Did HR (or others) sent this to NYT, WaPo, etc.? Can we help and how?

I suppose it's up to us to get this kind of information out there. I try and repost this stuff on as many anti-Israel FB pages as I can.

Hamas announced "A financial support to families of martyrs" in other words they will pay and encourage people to participate in violent demonstrations. They offer each family of anyone killed $3000 and if wounded $500. This is real. Source: paltimes.ps/post/190585/%D...
